Refugee resettlement has been a key component of Buffalo’s identity for several years. Refugees who have fled the East African country of Somalia have settled in our Buffalo for a better life and they have built a strong community in doing so.

Ibrahim Iftin, of the Somali Bantu Community Organization of Buffalo will discuss the problems behind the wave of Somali Bantu refugees coming to the US., the struggles and successes that Somali Bantus have experienced in Buffalo, and the work that is being done on behalf of the Somali Bantu Community Organization of Buffalo.
